

The map illustrates the Nationalpark Schwarzwald, a large protected area in Germany. The park's boundary is marked by a thick red line. Inside the park, different zones are highlighted with various colors and patterns: green for forested areas, yellow for open areas, and red for the park boundary. Numerous labels identify specific locations, including Bühlertal, Büchelbach, Immenstein, and Forbach. The map also shows various roads, rivers, and smaller settlements. The text "Nationalpark Schwarzwald" is prominently displayed in the center.
